The investment to be made by the natural gas exploration consortium in Mozambique, led by the American oil company Anadarko Petroleum Corporation, amounts to approximately 20 billion US dollars

Mozambique Paulo Pimenta.

According to the firm, it will be the largest ever foreign direct investment project in Mozambique. The “Mozambique LNG” project will also be the largest project finance deal ever developed in the African continent.

Diogo Xavier da Cunha, Managing Partner at Miranda & Associados and the head of the Mozambican Jurisdiction Group, says “this project – and the ensuing projects for the valorization of the large natural gas reserves discovered in the Rovuma Basin in the north of Mozambique – will contribute to a major economic transformation in the Country”.

The team from Miranda also included partners Rita Correia and Nuno Cabeçadas and the managing partner of Pimenta e Associados in
